no more to be considered that order.

With regard to the fund which has been decided to have been the object of the Hospital fund and the Park it cannot be said that the Darya had any idea of repaying the amount from this pocket. They must have expected to collect sufficient subscriptions to liquidate the debt. There are no funds of the Anjanyaswami Temple from which this amount can be paid: for an estimate for Rs. 200 for repairs of this temple have been sanctioned by the instance and then the Darya if the money is not realized.

to the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

Most respected Sir

I the undersigned Hospital Assistant G.M. (Kunvaswamy) in 1900 when I was a Dharmadarsi of Moolthanahalli Sri Kuzanayasa Swami (Chennagiri), the temple was so dilapidated, that it was almost certain to come to grief in one of these days. When I have considerably improved this temple by repairs, modernizing the compound situated on the hilllock, planking the interior of the temple with matted timber well seen.

Obtained 18 acres of land in Machanahalli on the left bank of the Chennagiri in view to meet the expense for the service of the temple out of the produce of the land in question.

Purchased some other lands, adjacent to the temple for the service of the temple servants. On the whole the amount spent on the temple approximately Rs. 1000 & upwards.

Also I have deposited Rs. 100 in the Chennagiri Savings Society to build a well close to the temple for the use of devotees, in addition to the funds provided by the Dy. Commr. of the District.
But unfortunately the supply of water was failed.

In these circumstances I respectfully bring before you that when necessary repairs were undertaken I was transferred to Sorab, who I and other co-workers (Archak and Patil of the temple obtained a loan of Rs. 150 from the Government of Amildar of Chennagiri in new to get through the balance of work, then remaining. A bond was executed promising to repay the amount with interest within three years.

Owing to the adverse circumstances such as Plague, famine & other epidemics
- diseases the co-workers (Arachakas & Dabait) failed to collect money from the devotees attached to the temple; owing to the general hardship felt by the temple.

In the meantime the Amildar of Chennagiri filed a suit & the decree was given in his favor, including interest & other court expenses amounting to Rs 200.

Now under the present decree resting for three years the poor Arachakas, including humble self, & his partners, four in number the decree had to operate when it is all, respect the Arachakas who are living from to month, their lands were attached for the satisfaction of the court decree.

18 Acres of land obtained by one party for the temple use ^{also} to meet the unforeseen expenses such as repairs & was leased out & in return Rs 200 was yielded and deposited in the Chennagiri Treasury. The Amildar now the petitioners Arachakas petition the Dy. Commr. for applying to apply for in satisfaction of the court decree as the amount was purely spent on the temple repairs. The Dy. Commr. refused granting the prayer, & the endorsement is herewith submitted.
In a nutshell.

In conclusion I beg to state that you will be pleased to please to issue necessary orders for applying Rs 200 towards the du.

of and instruct me from the attachment of this property & holding & thus deprives them absolutely -

Sir,

M. Narain Rao Esquire

Shimoga District

L. Anantawamy Rao Esquire, A.A.
Secretary to Government Muzrai Department

Sir,

With reference to the marginally noted communications calling for a report on the memorial of Samrayara Krishnappa and Hanumanthappa of Sri Rajnageswari temple at Muddenhalli in the Channarayana Taluk, I have the honor to state that the temple which is situated on a hillock to the north of Channarayana Town does not enjoy any cash grant from Government but is endowed with Inam lands as shown in the accompanying statement A. The present Pujari Hanumanthachar is in the enjoyment of Survey N^o. 13 intended for daily puja service and of Survey N^o. 30 intended for Pauchaurita Abhishekham and other special services on special occasions. Survey N^o. 46 is assigned for musicians but is now in the enjoyment of Hanumanthachar and

N^o. 1422 dated 12th September 1907

N^o. 2265 dated 11th November 1907 and Survey N^o. 1 is intended for Naudadipa and Hanthara. These services ought to be performed by the Petitioners who are the same ⁵ Rayas attached to the temple and I believe that they have been performing them, though the land endowed for the purpose is at present in the enjoyment of the pejarri Hanthamantthachari. Their complaint on this head is well founded. If approved, the petitioners will be put in possession of Survey N^o. 1

2. About the year 1900 when Mr. C. Narasinga Rao (now retired) was Builder of the Chennagiri Taluk and when Hospital Assistant Chinmasastry Naidu was stationed at Chennagiri, an attempt seems to have been made to repair the temple and place its affairs on a sound footing, by collecting subscriptions from Devotees. Hospital Assistant Chinmasastry Naidu took a leading part in the matter and subscriptions were collected on a large scale. There is no record in the Taluk Cutcherry of the amount collected and the manner in which it was spent. The whole affair was treated as a private concern and Naidu was managing it. From the subscriptions collected, advances were made to individuals (chiefly the Daluk minor officials) on promissory notes and the Nitya-Kalle and Ketchukalle services in the temple were also met therefrom. The repair of the temple was also taken in hand and the cost paid from the amount of the subscriptions collected. No account of the money spent on repairs is forthcoming. Shivanabhatta, Patel of Muddenhally who assisted Chinnasawmy Naidu in this work is now dead. When I was at Chennagiri on the 15th May 1908, I sent for Shivanabhatta's brother and asked him to produce any accounts his brother had kept. In response to this call, he produced an account book kept by his brother from 14th May 1900 to 28th March 1906. I submit herewith an abstract of this account book (Appendix B) from which it will be seen that only a small sum of Rs 134 13.00 has been spent for repairing the temple during that period. It is possible that a larger expenditure has been incurred for repairs but there are no accounts to show what has actually been spent. Chinnasawmy Naidu may be called upon to render correct account of the monies which passed passed through his lands.

3. A statement (appendix ^D6) showing the loans advanced to private individuals out of the subscriptions collected, is herewith submitted. The promissory notes relating to these loans are deposited in the Dalakh Treasury.

4. In 1900, Chinmasawmy Naidu, Bhimabhatta and petitioners Samerayara Hanumanthiah and Krishnappa jointly executed a pro-note and took a loan of Rs 50/- from the Muddenhalli Anjaneyaswami temple funds as well as of Rs 100/- from the funds of the Sri Nannimaradi - Rangmathaswami temple at Devarahalli in the Chennagiri Taluk. A decree has been obtained against them for Rs 297-10-1 and it is in course of execution now. (Vide - correspondence ending with Government Order N^o. 2761-2 dated 30th December 1905). It is in respect of these execution proceedings that Chinmasawmy Naidu (whose petitions were received with your docket N^o. 3606 dated 22nd January 1907 and N^o. 5401 dated 18th May 1907) and petitioners Hanumanthiah and Krishnappa complain. Be referring to Bhimabhattar's account book (of which Appendix B is an abstract) I find that both these advances amounting to Rs 150/- have been brought on the receipt side. It is evident therefore that the amount was spent for the repair of the temple and other services; but I cannot understand how Chinnasawney Naidu and others can claim this expenditure as a set off for the debt due by them. They took the loan evidently with the object of spending it for the benefit of the temple and finally reimbursing it from their pockets. They were not in the position of contractors to receive payment for work done by them but they were subscribers to a charity fund. The loan they obtained was properly repayable by them with interest as stipulated for by them. If the loan is to be construed as an advance for work to be done, I do not see why they stipulated to pay any interest at all on the sum borrowed and executed pro-notes in due form on Stamp paper. Any such construction would prejudicially affect their charitable motives and I would not therefore for a moment recommenced their request for a settlement being granted.

5. In 1901-02, with the object of improving the income of the temple, the petitioners and Chinnaswamy Naidu as well as Shrinabhatta arranged for the purchase of Government land Survey Nos 42 and $\frac{55}{\text{part}}$ as well as of a Pralambaya land Survey No 58. They spent about Rs 330/- out of the subscriptions collected by them, in purchasing these lands. Survey Nos 42 and $\frac{55}{\text{part}}$ are still in the occupancy of the temple which pays the full assessment thereon. They also acquired Survey No. 2 of Machanai Kanhalli on Bankhast and a portion of it (11 acres and 37 guntas assessed at Rs 13-8- according to the Revision Settlement) is registered in the name of the Anjaneya temple, the other portion about 6 acres, standing in the name of Sri Kote Rangaswatha Devam of Chennagiri (Vide appendix B). This number is the field of 18 acres alluded to in para 2 of Chinnaswamy Naidu's petition dated 11th January 1907. It had been leased out to one Venkataswami on behalf of the temple, but he resigned it in March 1905, after paying Rs 138-15-6 on account of the lease. This amount has been credited to the temple found. For the years 1905-06 and 1906-07 the land had been leased for an amount equal to the assessment of the land and therefore no surplus accrued to the temple in those years.

The land is now occupied by sheds belonging to persons who had to evacuate their houses in the town of Chennamagiri on account of plague and the grounds not leviable for the current year is reported to be Rs 15/-

6. Survey N^o 42 and $\frac{55}{\text{part}}$ are now in the enjoyment of the musicians (Valagadavaru) employed in the temple. They pay the full assessment to Government on behalf of the temple and enjoy them. Owing to the failure of the musicians to pay the assessment due for the year 1906-07, these numbers have been sold for Rs 23 at an auction and the sale is awaiting confirmation. Arrangements will be made to lease out the land on better terms from 1908-09.

7. The history of the Dralimadaya Survey N^o 58 is given in the correspondence ending with Government Order N^o 575-86 dated 23rd July 1906. It formed part of Survey N^o 10 of Muddenhalli village which was originally a Personal Dralimadaya Inam granted to

Inam Kavar
 Assessment

 (844)

Karayanna and Kuttappa (vide pages 72-73 of the Dist Rent Register of the Chennasiri - Taluk). At the Inam Settlement, 3 acres and 2 guntas of land assessed at Rs 5/- were confirmed as Inam and the remaining seven acres and 13 guntas assessed at Rs 12/- were brought under Khalsat and constituted into Survey N^o 58^{This Survey No 58}, was held by Shimabhatta as alluded to in para 2 above. This Shimabhatta sold the land to the temple for Rs 100/- which was paid out of the subscriptions raised by him and Chinnaswamy Naidu. He received the price and made over the land to the temple. Afterwards, as Trustee of the temple, he commenced an agitation to get the land converted into Sarvamanjaram but it ended in the refusal of the Government to sanction the proposal. (vide Government order N^o 575-86 of the 23rd July 1906). The petitioners who are now in the enjoyment of this Survey number have not paid its assessment from the year 1901-02 when it was transferred to the Khate of the temple by Shimabhatta. I am of opinion that it should be recovered from them before it can be taken over on behalf of Government. The request of the petitioners that the arrears of revenue due upon this and should be paid from the funds at creation of the temple is absurd, as the temple has not derived any benefit from it. As the number in question, though Mahamadaya has been registered in the name of the temple, it may hereafter be classed as Devadaya Inam, subject to the payment of a quit rent equal to the full assessment viz, Rs 13-0-0 and allowed to be enjoyed by the Petitioners subject to their performing the mandadipa and alankara services.

8. The construction of a well at the foot of the hillock on which the temple is situated, at a cost of Rs 475/- was sanctioned from Local Funds General in 1901 and a Contribution of Rs 100/- was paid from the temple & subscriptions towards the work. The sides of the well having collapsed, the work was abandoned and an estimate for Rs 387 was sanctioned in March 1905 for storing water in a bouda close to the well. This work was completed in 1906-07 and the whole of the cost Rs 337.6-8 was defrayed from District Funds. I inspected the bouda on the 17th May 1908 and am of opinion that it will not suffice to retain water during the hot season when the Kattotsavam takes place. A well is a necessity as, at present, water has to be carried all the way from Chennagiri or Muddenhalli for Abhishekham purposes. On my next visit to Chennagiri, I shall select a site for a well at the foot of the hill.

9. As regards the repairs to the temple as already observed, there is no account ¹¹⁻¹²⁻¹⁹⁰⁷ showing what money was spent upon the repairs executed by Chinmasastry Naidu and others out of the subscriptions collected by them. The temple is now in good order. An estimate for Rs 208 was sanctioned in March 1907. (Vide Government Proceedings No. 4584-5 dated 19th March 1907) and work to the value of Rs 110-9-10 has already been done. The remainder of the estimate will be worked up within the next few months. This estimate will be met from the funds at the credit of the temple.

10. At the end of April 1908, there was at the credit of the temple a sum of Rupees 212-10-11 under the head "Miscellaneous Funds (1) Margri Funds" and of Rs 3-13-10 in the Savings bank.

11. The temple is situated on a charming hillside and is held in high veneration. The Inam and the Kaudayem lands belonging to the temple afford sufficient remuneration to the Pujari, the Sameraya and the musicians employed in the temple. The daily services are being regularly performed.

12. The petitions under report are herewith returned.

I have the honor to be the Sameroysas of the temple. The land however is in the possession of the Brahmin Pujari and the Sameroysas are in possession of a Brahmadaia land, Sur. no 58 in the same village, bearing a Khalsat of Rs 12/- purchased and endowed ~~for~~^{to} the temple. Application was made for converting this Brahmadaia land into Devadaya and for remission of the Khalsat, but it was refused under orders conveyed in the Govt Order of the 23rd July 1906, read above.

Sameroysas Krishnappa and Hanumanthayya have submitted memorials to H the Maharaja, praying (a) that they may be put in possession of Sur. no. 1, the Nanda Deepa and Alankara miam land;

(b) that the Brahmadaia land, Sur. no 58 may be converted into Devadaya and the assessment remitted or paid from ^{the} temple funds;

(c) that as the money which they and the Hosp'l Asst G/B Chinmasami Naidu and Patel Bhunia Bhatta borrowed from the Devarahalli Udumvedi Rangana thaswami temple fund was used for the repairs of the Muddanahalli Anjaneyaswami temple. The amount for which decree has since been obtained against them, may be paid from the funds of the Muddanahalli Anjaneyaswami temple.

3. As regards the first point, the Deputy Commissioner reports that the complaint of the memorialists is well-founded and that if so ordered, he will put them in possession of the Vanda Deepa and Blankara mainland.

As regards the second matter, he says that ^{Bhima Bhatta sold the} the Brahmadaipa land ~~belonging to Bhima Bhatta~~ ^{to the temple} and agitated without avail on behalf thereof for the remission of the Kharab, that the memorialists have been in possession of the land since 1901-02 taking the produce and that there is no reason why they should not pay the Kharab. As regards the third point, the Deputy Commr. says that the money borrowed has been used for the repairs of the Muddanahalli Anjaneyaswami temple, but that still the judgment-debtors are liable to pay the amount as presumably their object was to repay the amount from their pocket.

4. ~~As regards the first point,~~
^{as regards the first point,}
 The Govt observe that the Brahmin Pujari should be heard before he is deprived of the land. The ~~letter~~ ~~will be posted to Dy. Commr.~~ ~~and the Deputy Commissioner is~~ ~~requested to issue notices to him~~ ~~and to the Sameroys to appear~~ ~~before Govt at the Public Offices~~ ~~on that date.~~ As regards the second matter, it is observed that as the orders declining to convert the tenure into Devadaya and remit the Kharbat were passed on a careful consideration of the facts of the case, there are no reasons to reconsider those orders.

5. With regard to the third matter, the Govt observe that whatever might have been the object of the Hosp. Asst Chumia-samu Naidu and the Patel, it cannot be said that the Sameroys had any idea of repaying the amount borrowed from their own pocket; They must have expected to collect sufficient subscriptions to liquidate the debt ~~there are~~ in his own money and paper ends

~~no funds of the Sri Añjaneyaswami~~ ~~temple from which the amount can~~ ~~be paid as prayed for by Chinnaasam~~ ~~Naidu. The last named~~ Hoapl Asst should therefore be proceeded against in the first instance in executing the decree, and then the Sameroyas if the money is not realised

The Deputy Commr's further report regarding the improvements of the temple is awaited.
